MOSES

BIBLE SUPERHERO FAMILY DEVOTION

Exodus 3 & 4

The calling of Moses to save the Israelites found in Chapters 3 and 4 may not seem very heroic. Actually, Moses spends most of the time questioning God... asking God if He has the right person. And Moses gives lots of excuses to why he is not the right person for the job. Doesn't seem like something a superhero would do, right?

God has spoken to Moses through a burning bush in the wilderness. He has called Moses to go to Egypt to free the Israelites from slavery under Pharaoh. That's a HUGE calling! I think I might have even asked some of the same questions that Moses did to God. But for every question Moses throws God's way, God has an answer:

- Moses: "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" (3:11)
God: "I will be with you." (3:12)
- Moses: "Suppose I go to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' Then what shall I tell them?" (3:13)
God: "I AM WHO I AM." (3:14)
- Moses: "What if they do not believe me or listen to me and say, 'The Lord did not appear to you?'" (4:1)
God: God gives Moses signs to use to show the Israelites he has the power of God: a staff turning into a snake, his hand turning from a leprous hand to one that is healed, and turning the Nile River water into blood. (4:3-9)
- Moses: "Pardon your servant, Lord. I have never been eloquent, neither in the past nor since you have spoken to your servant. I am slow of speech and tongue." (4:10)
God: "Now go; I will help you speak and will teach you what to say." (4:12)

I love how God takes every question or excuse and gives Moses a direct answer. I think these answers might be what helps bring out the superhero powers in Moses. He goes on to display the power of God, faith, and courage. He uses God's power to show Pharaoh all the wonders God has given him to do. And in order to show the power of God, Moses has to have faith in God and the courage to step up and go to Egypt to speak to Pharaoh.

Today, think of something you could do to show the power of God, faith, and courage. Here are some ideas on how to use these superpowers that Moses showed:

- Power of God - Reading your Bible and believing in the power of God.
- Faith - Listening to God and doing what you know is right.
- Courage - Telling a friend about Jesus.

Powerful God, thank You for calling Moses to free Your people. Help me to show courage to do what You ask me to do, even if it's hard. Amen.

BIBLE SUPERHERO FAMILY ACTIVITY

Family Campfire

A campfire is a great way to remember the story of Moses and the burning bush. Your family can enjoy the evening sitting around the campfire and discussing Moses the Bible Superhero while eating a s'more!

Supplies Needed: campfire ring, wood, lighter, graham crackers, chocolate bars, marshmallows, roasting stick

Kids, only adults are allowed to start your campfire!

Have a parent start your campfire. Once your fire is ready, begin making your s'mores. As you are sitting around the campfire, discuss these questions:

- If you were Moses, how would you have reacted to God speaking to you through a burning bush?
- Why do you think God chose to speak to Moses through a burning bush?
- What questions (if any) would you have asked God about calling you to deliver the Israelites from Egypt?
